

XVII. Public Notice Bulletin Board Policy

Posters or flyers publicizing a specific event or educational opportunity may be submitted for posting by nonprofit organizations or others sharing the library's mission, for civic, educational or cultural purposes. Limited space allows only short-term notices. The director must approve all postings and may prohibit postings which do not meet library standards. Posters advertising auctions, yard sales or events promoted by for-profit entities shall be prohibited. The library will not be responsible for returning materials.
