

IV. Services of the Library

The library provides materials and resources for information, entertainment, intellectual development, and enrichment of the people of the community. The library should endeavor to:

1. Select, organize, and make available essential books and resources.
2. Provide guidance and assistance to patrons.
3. Sponsor and implement programs, exhibits, displays, book lists, etc., which will appeal to patrons of all ages.
4. Cooperate with other community agencies, organizations, and libraries within NWLS.
5. Secure information beyond its own resources using interlibrary loan and other resource sharing methods provided through the system and state.
6. Develop and provide services to patrons with special needs.
7. Maintain a balance in its services to various age groups.
8. Collaborate with local schools and other institutions to provide a rich learning environment.
9. Provide service during hours that best meet the needs of the community.
10. Regularly review library services being offered.
11. Use media and other public relations mechanisms to promote the full range of available library services.
12. Lend to other libraries upon request.
